BELLEROPHON

DEDICATION

In appreciation of their unending loyalty and devotion to their country in its time of need, we, the class of '49', dedicate this, the XVIV volume of the Bellerophon, to our veterans of World War II.

SUPERINTENDENT JOHN D. LINN AND ELLEN MARSH, SECRETARY

This familiar pose has been selected by the staff as being the most fitting for our annual. Mr. Linn, Superintendent since 1944, is well known for his work with the Convoy School Band, and has been advisor and sponsor to the Senior Class each year. It was through his co-operation that this annual was possible.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

With our graduation so near at hand, it is hard to believe that we were once bashful first-graders.

When we first entered school on that day in September, twelve years ago, we were just a little bit afraid of that big building with so many people in it. But as time went on, we became adjusted to our new environment, and before long we felt as though we really belonged there. For the first six years, our lessons consisted of "readin'", "ritin'", and "rithmetic". Then, as we approached the seventh grade, we began to look forward to the beginning of our high school years. This was something new, too. Of special importance in our eighth grade year was the State Test, on which several of our classmates received high ratings.

As Freshmen we had to face the ridicule of our upper classmen. We were forced to dress and act like morons during our initiation period. After the Sophomores entertained us at our initiation party, we felt capable of withstanding anything the world had to offer. Miss McDonald, the Home Economics teacher, was our sponsor, and Walter McDaniel, our president.

Under the sponsorship of Miss West in our Sophomore year, we entertained the Freshmen at an initiation party that was equal to what we had experienced as Freshmen. Walter McDaniel was again our president. The Latin Club was organized this year, and our Latin students became its first members.

At the beginning of our Junior year, we began to think of some ways to earn money. We had a skating party, a bake sale, and sold refreshments at basketball games. We elected Betty Sinn president and Mr. Alexander was our sponsor. The prom theme we chose was "A Heavenly Ball". We spent many weeks in preparation for this big event. With the help of our sponsor and the cooperation of our classmates we felt very proud of the result. The Junior-Senior Reception was, in our minds, a success.

Then the big year dawned on us. Weighted down with all the "extras" that accompany the Senior year, we undertook our responsibilities with full anticipation of the festivities of our graduation. Our biggest problem was that of raising money for our class trip. We held a skating party, a bake sale, operated the candy store, sold refreshments at basketball games, edited the annual, and had a carnival. Betty Sinn was again our president, and Mr. Linn, our sponsor. We are planning to go to Washington D. C. for our class trip. Now, with commencement just ahead, we set forth from Convoy High School, proud of the record that we, the class of 1949 have made.

FIFTH ROW: Margie Hummel, Margie Thompson, Frances Hummel.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1950

In the warm sunny month of September, 1938, the school bells summoned us, as newcomers, to join in the activites within. We were starry-eyed, amazed, and somewhat scared of this new place and of our teacher. But soon we were as much a part of it as we were of our homes. Miss Mildred Temple started us in our field of learning the subjects that are necessary in life; reading, writing, arithmetic, literature, music, and drawing. These nine months passed quickly and we were promoted to the second grade.

Mrs. Norma Carey met us at the door this time and added to our knowledge a few more facts. Then habitually, we passed from grade to grade with Mrs. Helen Smith as instructor for our third, Miss Jessie Driver for our fourth, Mrs. Rema Mohr and Mrs. Mary Myers for our fifth, and Miss Driver again as our sixth grade teacher.

Then we children were standing on the threshold, beholding another moment filled with anxiety. We were promoted upstairs. The seventh and eighth grades passed rapidly, and then came high school.

The first month of high school proved to be warm and cheerful--Freshman Initiation--. Months went somewhat slower, later, but eventually they passed, as did the Sophomore year.

Now as Juniors, we are looking forward to other great moments in our lives,--Senior activities and graduation--. When it comes, we, together, will meet it.

SOPHOMORES

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1951

In 1939 we started our education with a class of 43. Little did we know what was ahead of us in the next eleven years. But now that we look back over the years, we recall different incidents that constituted our happy elementary years. Among these were an operetta entitled "Aunt Drucilla's Garden", which we gave in the sixth grade with the help of the fourth and fifth grades.

Also in the sixth grade, we had a minstrel show that was part of a program by the entire school. We all found this was fun, because we were dressed to look like "darkies".

In 1945 we entered the seventh grade with a class of 33. We found it rather confusing, since the seventh and eighth grades are included in the high school. But we finally became accustomed to it, through the help of our upper-classmen. We were now eligible for class parties, so we took advantage of it with two parties; a "Scavenger Hunt" and a weiner roast at Snyder's grove. Aside from these parties, we visited Van Wert to see the Brumback Library, the County Court House, and the County Jail.

In the eighth grade we, accompanied by the seventh grade, had a skating party at the Y.W.C.A. in Van Wert. After taking our "Eighth Grade State Test" we journeyed to Fort Wayne where we had an excursion of the points of interest of that city.

Upon entering the Freshmen Class, we still had an enrollment of 33. We assembled for the first time as Freshmen under the advisership of Mr. Smith and elected the following to serve as class officers for the year: Howard Klausmeier, president; Junior Bauer, vice-president; Velma Hoverman, secretary-treasurer; Darlene Jones and LeRoy Hoaglin, reporters. The Sophomores initiated us into high school on October the eighth. We had three other parties during this year.

We now have 29 members through a loss of four of our class mates. Our officers for this year are: Doyt Schaadt, president; Robert Knittle, vice-president; Velma Hoverman, secretary-treasurer; and Barbara Gaskill and Mervin Barkley, reporters. Mr. Sawmiller is our adviser. As Sophomores we have had the honor of initiating our under-classmen.

And now, as Sophomores, we are looking forward to the next two years, our last years. In both of these years we hope to find as many happy times and to acquire as much knowledge as we have in these first ten years.

FRESHMEN

TOP ROW: James Mollenkopf, Shirley McDaniel, Dean Mollenkopf, Rose Marie Scaer, Thomas Clay, Mary Strunkenburg.
SECOND ROW: Sondra Leslie, Paul Schaadt, Margaret Snyder, Marlan Densel, Joyce Friedly, Max Barkley, THIRD ROW: David Wagner, Eleanor Dominique, Ronald Gaskill, Donna Slane, Marlin Owens, Evelyn Campbell.
FOURTH ROW: Beverly Hoaglin, Jerry Jerome, Nancy Davis, Gerald Harting, Patricia Garver, Donald Baker.
FIFTH ROW: Joseph Schaadt, Joseph Wyandt, Rowland Klinger, Robert Sowers.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1952

The class of '52 started to school in 1940. Our class was composed of 42 pupils. Our teacher was Miss Catherine Dean.

The next fall we started the second grade. Mrs. Norma Carey was our teacher.

In the third grade Mrs. Helen Smith was our teacher. Many new subjects were introduced to us and we anticipated our next years with great eagerness.

Mrs. Mary Meyers was our teacher in the fourth grade. This year we won $10 for competing in a paper drive with the fifth and sixth grades.

During the next two years we were kept busy on many new adventures and subjects taught by Mrs. Rema Mohr and Miss Jessie Driver.

In the school year of '46 and '47 we entered Junior High. We were beginning to feel important, but we found that hard work was connected with the fun we were having. We had many parties including a trip to Toledo Zoo as a reward for the highest attendance of the school, and a skating party at the Y.W.C.A. Several of the boys played on the Junior High basketball. Joyce Friedly and Margie Snyder were chosen as cheer-leaders. Our teachers were Mrs. Charlotte Stose and Mr. Edwards. By this time we were used to being upstairs and being given the many privileges of the people in high school.

We entered high school as trembling little green Freshmen. We were looked down upon with pity, as this was the year of our initiation. The Sophomores gave us an unusually warm greeting into high school. On October 8, 1948, the so-waited-for initiation came. The girls wore nightgowns, big shoes, their hair in rag curlers, and had lovely red paint smeared all over their faces. The boys wore women's clothes, high heeled shoes, carried doll babies, and all had some lovely red paint. Altogether it was great fun. In the evening the Sophomores gave us a swell party. Also, we had a few parties of our own.

Several of the boys in our grade look very promising as far as basketball is concerned. Mr. Smith is our sponsor this year. We are looking forward to the next three years of high school with anticipation.

The members of the chapter have an average of three productive projects and one improvement project in their individual farming programs. The chapter conducted an experimental plot with 19 different corn hybrids; completed a tour of the projects; participated in dairy, swine, beef, sheep, poultry and egg judging contest; participated in chapter procedure contests; attended state F. F. A. convention; conducted pest hunt and farm safety program.

The chapter carries out a well rounded social and recreational program by playing other F. F. A. chapters basketball and softball, holding weiner roasts, watermelon feeds, bowling parties, and an annual Parent and Son banquet. Doyt Schaadt and Eugene Schlemmer attended the State F. F. A. Camp as awards for having the most outstanding farming programs.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club is a new club organized for students who are interested in Commercial subjects. This is the second year it has been organized.

Field trips to various companies to observe office routines, and requirements for the beginning office worker, was a major project. Giving awards for typing and shorthand proficiency, obtaining a scholarship for a worthy commercial graduate, and doing a number of special jobs for outside individuals and organizations, were other projects.

The officers are:

Jeanne Clay-Pres.
Rowena Dellinger-Vice Pres.
Donna Etzler-Secretary
Marilyn Ryan-Treasurer
Mr. Alexander-Sponsor

BACK ROW: Sue Sowers, Mary Beatty, Betty Pancake, Ramona Landrum, Fern Schaadt, Ruth Beatty, Martha Klinger.

FRONT ROW: Jo Anne May, Jean Hildbold, Joyce Snyder, Velma North, Jeanne Clay, Betty Sinn, Alice Rosendahl, Eileen Knittle.

INDIAN SENTINEL STAFF

Our school paper, the INDIAN SENTINEL, is published by the Senior Typing Class. It is put out at different intervals during the school years.

Grade and club reporters turn in the news, and the typists arrange it and type the stencils, getting office practice experience from the different problems that arise.

The staff includes:

Jeanne Clay-Editor
Alice Rosendahl-Assistant Editor
Eileen Wallis-Art Editor
Joyce Snyder-
Fern Schaadt-Joke Editors
Jean Hildbold-Birthdays
Pat Baker-School Calendar

FRONT ROW: Jeanne Clay, Alice Rosendahl, Editors.

SCHOOL FUN

A TRIP TO MARS

Zoom! We're off to the wonderful planet of Mars. There are Mercury, Jupiter, and Venus!!!! Flying through the sky gives us a wonderful sense of freedom. Poor earth! I wonder if the people of earth will ever have that feeling.

As we land on Mars, we are met by little, interesting men. Strangely enough they speak our language. They show us great respect as they take us to their palace of diamonds.

We are invited to visit their room of inventions. Excitedly we walk down a long corridor to room "A". A unique invention in this room recalls all the past. We see ourselves as we first entered Convoy school; then, as we progressed through the years to our graduation day.

In room "B" is a machine which reveals the future. Greatly astonished, we walk in and close the door. Rather hesitantly, we walk to the machine and press the button.

At first the view is blurred, but suddenly we see the Olympics of 1952. We recognize Eileen Knittle. She is just ready to begin the 120 meter run. They're off! Excitedly we watch the contestants as they approach the goal. Eileen wins by a 20-foot margin, making the fastest time ever recorded.

Next we catch a view of Reno. We see a court room scene. Sure enough! It is Jo Anne May acting as judge. She always did have an understanding of problems of romance. She is the first woman judge Reno has ever had.

First we hear instruments warming up; then suddenly the curtains rise. Miss Jeanne Clay appears on the stage amid great applause, and takes her place at the piano. The music that follows is so beautiful we hate to leave, but since we have no control over the machine, the music fades away.

Suddenly the Capitol in Washington D. C. appears. We see Dean Grant sitting behind his huge desk in the F. B. I. Building. The newspaper clippings hung all over the walls show that he is quite famous as the captor of many criminals.

Now we're off for Florida. We see the "Luxury Hotel", which is known for its famous food, loom before us. Doris Bell, the dietician, is in the office preparing the menu for the next day. She is quite successful in this profession. On her wall is a famous painting by Eileen Wallace. We find several paintings by this artist in other parts of the hotel.

Huge cacti loom before us as we enter the state of Texas. The Bar "X" Ranch looks deserted as we near it, but soon we find that most of the cowboys are out rounding up the cattle. Jack Garver, the owner, is rather worried because the water supply is low.

Hollywood! Excitement thrills us as we enter. Who of our class could possibly have made good in this place? We see all of our favorite child stars, now grown up. Isn't that Donna Morehead? We call her and talk of old times. Then she invites us to visit her hat shop. She designs hats for all the movie stars.

Like a streak of lightning we fly across the nation to New York. As we enter the New York Times office, we see above a big door the words "Fern Schaadt--Joke Editor". We would like to visit her, but so many people keep going in and out of her door that we don't bother her.

A crowd of people looking into the sky draws our attention as we leave the building. At once we see a plane doing acrobats in the sky. We recognize it as Ruth Beatty's plane. Ruth has been a pilot ever since she graduated. That must be Pat Baker as co-pilot. What a team!

Now we are taken to the scene of a football game. Sure enough it's the Army-Navy game. There's Mac McDaniel sitting on the bench. My goodness, he's Navy's coach.

From somewhere we hear a news broadcast. The voice sounds familiar, but we do not recognize it until we see the news commentator. No wonder. Who ever thought Donna Etzler would go into that profession!!!

Still in a daze we leave for Chicago. Along the way we see billboards advertising the Mabel Stevens Theaters. She has them throughout the country. In Chicago we are rushed to Velma North's dress store. From the line waiting she must have a profitable business.

Down the street a short distance, we see Jack Pennell's electric appliance factory. He is in competition with Westinghouse and is quite a rival.

We follow telephone lines into a huge building and find Ramona Landrum acting as Chief Operator for the Bell Telephone Company.

As we move across the world we come to Cuba. We notice that the tallest building in the country is Bob Weaver's radio station CHS. He is noted for his commentaries or the Crisis of the World Today.

From the cleanliness and atmosphere of the next building we decide that it must be a hospital. Yes, there goes a nurse. Let's follow her. As we go into the operating room, the doctor comes in. Why, it's Mary Alice Louagie.

Our memories are aroused as we approach dear old Convoy High. The halls are the same, the rooms, the books, and all. As we walk into the office, whom do we see but Jean Marilyn Hildbold sitting back of the big desk we know so well! After inquiring, we find that she has been superintendent for three years.

Next we see a big dairy farm with three huge barns. As our vision enters the house, we see Alice Rosendahl getting supper ready for her--------
Before we know it the vision fades and we are left watching a blank machine.

Very disappointed, we walk down the hall, out the door, and on to the landing field. We board our rocket ship and start for the U.S.A. After we land we hurry to catch the plane for home. When the stewardess brings us our lunch, we think she looks familiar. And no wonder! It's Betty Sinn. We relax and think of our experience all the way home. I wonder if anyone will believe us when we tell him of his future?

HEATING-V

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1949, of Convoy High School, of the city of Convoy, the state of Ohio, realizing that we have little time to spend in this high school, do hereby distribute our talents and possessions as we think it best. We have tried to show our generosity, impartiality, and wisdom in dispersing our natural gifts and belongings which have benefited us in our school life. We ask that you accept them with a sacredness and sincerity and use them as the departed would have them used. The following to-wit;

WE HEREBY WILL, DEVISE, AND BEQUEATH

To the faculty, the feeling of relief they enjoy when they awaken to the fact that we are no more, our leftover pencils, borrowed mostly from them, and our sense of (humor?).

To the Juniors, our seats and position in study hall, our worn books, and the feeling of satisfaction on your graduation day.

To the Sophomores, our way with the teachers, our orneriness, and our loud conversations.

To the Freshmen, our grim views on life and our personalities.

To the 7th and 8th grades, the ability to know what opportunity lies ahead of you in the next few years, and all of our excess knowledge.

We, as individuals of the senior class of 1949, will and bequeath our own personal possessions as follows:

I, Patricia Fern Baker, will my blond hair, my timed writings, and my accuracy to Martha Klinger.

I, Doris Joan Bell, will my fluttery eyes, and my ability to speak my mind to Betty Pancake.

I, Jeanne Carol Clay, will my red hair and my kitten-on-the-keys ability to Robert Zephyr.

I, Donna Mae Etzler, will my brown eyes to Rowena Dellinger, and my quietness to Duane Poling.

I, Eileen Delores Wallis, will my timidness, and artistic abilities to Don Weaver.

I, Robert Eugene Weaver, will my shyness and my bright answers to Dan May.

I, Walter Ivan McDaniel, will my basketball suit to Max Barkley and my way with girls to Jack Sowers.

I, Betty Jean Sinn, will my ability to get acquainted to Mary Northup, and my 500 word essay to Tommy Clay.

I, Ruth Joan Beatty, will my long eyelashes to Carl Copper. They'll dazzle the girls, Burt!!!!

I, Carol Eileen Knittle, will my basketball suit to anyone who will press it and my seat in study hall to anyone who likes second-hand gum.

I, Ramona Mae Landrum, will my love of tall "fellas" to Nila Mollenkopf, and my long hair to Patty Garver.

I, Fern Lucille Schaadt, will my sense of humor to Katherine Mace, and my freckles to anyone who wishes that "winsome look".

I, Alice Jean Rosendahl, will my vocabulary to Jimmy Hyitt, and my ability to get along with my prospective mother-in-law to Junior Bauer.

I, Donna Ruth Morehead, will my sweet smile to Jerry Jerome, and my curly locks to Vivian North.

I, Mary Alice Louagie, will my daintiness to Dan Snyder, and my love of all teachers to Joe Wyandt.

I, Mable Alberta Stevens, will my innocence to Doyt Schaadt. (He can use it!)

I, Dean Dale Grant, will my orneriness to Gene Schlemmer, and my athletic ability to anyone who does not have a ladder handy when in a haymow.

I, Richard Jack Garver, will my cowboy boots to the school to be set in bronze in memory of the biggest noise that ever entered study hall!!!

I, John David Pennell, will my knack for getting 5's for talking to Bob Knittle and my taxi service to school to anyone with a car and lots of gas.

I, Velma Jean North, will my ability to hook rich boyfriends to Connie Mosel and my careful driving technique to Donnie Weck.

I, Bette Jo Anne May, will my cackle to Nancy Davis, and my long tapering fingernails (as soon as I raise them) to Jeanne Eddy.

I, Joyce Elaine Snyder, will my various souveniers to anyone with a large bedroom, and my ability to go steady to Bob Schaadt.

I, Jean Marilyn Hildbold, will my ability to behave myself and act lady-like to Connie Mosel.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Senior Class to be our last will and testament, on this, the twenty-fourth day of February in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-nine. In the presence of each other we here affix our names as witnesses.

(Signed) Senior Class of 1949

WE ALL TH
GREE

OUR VIEW OF HUMOR

Alice: "I shuddered when Marvin proposed to me."
Jeanne: "Why, was he that awkward?"
Alice: "No, he did it so well."

Jeff Alexander had a hard time pronouncing the letter"R" so the teacher gave him a sentence to learn: "Robert gave Richard a rap in the rib for roasting the rabbit so rare."

A few days later she asked Jeff to repeat the sentence.

He rose and said, "Bob gave Dick a poke in the side for not cooking the bunny enough."

Howard Klausmeier: "I've a cold in my head."
Rose Marie Soaer: "That's better than nothing."

Dean: "Oh! That's my foot, please get off."
Jack S.: "Why don't you put your foot where it belongs?"
Dean: "Don't tempt me, kid!"

Dan Snyder: "Hey, sis, I failed in five subjects, prepare Mom."
Joyce: "She's prepared; prepare yourself."

Miss West: "Leave your papers on your desk as you pass out."

Mr. Sawmiller: "Would you like to hear about the theory of kissing?"
Ruth Beatty: "No, I care for applied science."

3272 people died of gas last year. 41 inhaled it, 31 lighted it by touching a match to it. 3200 stepped on it.

Photographer: "Please look pleasant, lady, and in a few moments you can resume your natural expression."

Mrs. Stose: "What tense is this verb?"
Nila Mollenkopf: "I'd like to tell you but I think it will do you more good if you look it up yourself!"

Ramona Landrum: "We're going to give the bride a shower."
Jack Pennell: "Count me in. I'll bring the soap!"

Jack: "How can you tell how fast you are going without a speedometer?"
Bert: "At so the fender rattles, at 40 the doors rattle, and at 50 I rattle."

The bad man made the winds to blow
The ladies skirts so high;
But the good Lord made the dust just
To fill the bad man's eye.

Mr. Smith: "Order, order."
Eugene Schlemmer: (absent mindedly) "One hamburger with plenty onion!"
